25 April

10:30	Meeting at DNIPRO Hotel before Excursion
10:30 - 16:30	Unforgettable excursion to historical center of Kyiv, St Sophia Cathedral and Kiev-Pecherskaya Lavra (duration: 6 hours) City tour of Kiev gives an amazing overview of the city. Tour opens all perspectives of the capital of Ukraine, that are worth traveler's view. St Sophia Cathedral - Kyiv's oldest standing church, St. Sophia's was built in 1037 by Prince Yaroslav the Wise, who incidentally was laid to rest inside. Meetings with foreign diplomats and treaty negotiations were held here, and the church housed the first library and school in Kyivan Rus. Today the entire complex is protected by Ukraine, and also receives support from UNESCO. Kiev-Pecherskaya Lavra - One of the most famous Kiev attractions was founded in 1051 by the monks Antony and Feodosiy for the expansion of Kiev's new religion - Christianity. The complex of Kiev-Pecherskaya Lavra Monastery includes the Nearby and Far-off caves, the Church of the Savior on Berestove, Holy Trinity Gate Church, St Nicholas' Church and the Great Lavra Belfry, the highest in Ukraine (96,6 meters) as well as the fully reconstructed Assumption Cathedral. The majority of the structures were built in the Ukrainian Baroque style. The ensemble is built in harmony with the surrounding countryside and forms a beautiful and majestic silhouette of Kiev from the Dnipro river side.
